Promptly at 8 o'clock the officiating clergy-men entered the room and passed within the altar, followed by the groom and his best man, who stood without the flowery rail. The young bride entered, leaning upon the arm of Gen. Howard. The bride wore an exquisite robe of white faille on train, with high corrage daintily trimmed with chiffon wrought in hemstitch, while the bridal veil fell in soft folds over the entire robe. Her only ornament was a true lover's knot of pearls, and her bouquet was composed of Puritan roses tied with white satin ribbons. The bridesmaid wore a beautiful robe of embossed India silk, cut en train, the high corsage trimmed richly with ruffles of lace and caught with a diamond pin. She carried La France roses. The pretty little maid of honor wore a dainty dress of white silk and wool, beautifully trimmed with lace and ribbons and white roses on her breast. The bride is the

The wedding gifts were numerous and very elegant.

Secretary and Mrs. John W. Foster left 69. Of this number 49 were schooners, 3 were steam-Saturday for northern New York and the Thousand Isles and will be gone until the 15th of September.

Miss Lizzie P. Donaldson left this morning for a two weeks' trip to New York.

At the delightful cottage "Isle of Wight," Ocean City, Md., are registered the following Washingtonians: Thos. J. King, wife and children; Capt. L. W. Littlefield, wife and son; Mr. H. D. Nicholson, wife and children; Ed Newmeyer, W. H. Mohler, John Miller, Prof. Dannenhower, M. Cassidy, A. R. Williams, Chas. Morrow, J. R. Burnside, J. Bromwell, Miss Gore, J. F. Linden, Dr. and Miss McLain, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown.

"Farview," the home of Mrs. Henry Hubbard Pierce at Mountain Lake Park, Md., was the scene of an interesting ceremony last Wednesday evening when her daughter, Miss Katherine Brown Pierce, was married to Rev. Saturday for northern New York and the Thousand Isles and will be gone until the tine and 16 were barges. The arrivals were as follows

The priest of the place decided with a number of his flock that the best place for the new chapel to be built was on the north side of the Maskinong river. He bought twelve acres

For months hundreds of them met there every Sunday, chanted hymns and recited their beads and prayers. The candless on the altar were lighted and all was kept in readiness for the priest, who never came.

Early in July of last year the Rev. Father Hendricks of the Eedemptonst order of Montreal went to Maskinong to preach a retreat. When he arrived there he declared that he would go to the dissenters' chapel on a Sunday morning, declaring that he would be able to bring them all back to the parochial church.

The people were on their knees in prayer when the priest entered. He walked to the altar railings, when he was asked if he had come to

of great disorder followed, many of the women fainting. It was only with great energy that some were restrained from using violence. The priest left the chapel and none followed him to the church.

For months after the people met as usual in the chapel for prayers, but their number dwindled each succeeding week. The women remained away, going quietly in the early hours to low mass at the parochial church. Some of the former dissenters did not go to any place of worship.

A few months ago the Rev. Burwash, a Baptist minister, visited the place and commenced to preach to the people in the small chapel. The result was that Thursday eleven of the leading residents of the village were received into the Baptist communion. The unusual event has created a great commotion among the

they could do, he said, was to render financial aid and moral support to the democratic nominees, and this they would do in a manner that would put the croakers to scorn. The feeding against Cleveland arising out of his appointment of non-residents to District offices, which even now still exists to some extent, is not as bitter as it was, and since then Mr. Cleveland has said if he had the same thing to do over again he would not inflict outsiders upon us. He has acknowledged that he had, when in office, done District democrate agreat injustice.

Mr. Boyle when asked about the differences between the local democratic committees said they were now, he thought, in a fair way to be adjusted. The men on both committees are good, honest democrate, devoted to democracy, had shown in the past the faith that was, in them by their works, and would, he thought, soon get together.

"Mr. Kilmartin," continued Mr. Boyle, "justifies his course by saying that Mr. McDonaid, the member from the twenty-second district, voted for himself, Mr. Shelton voting with him. He has said so to me that he would not acknowledge him for that reason. Mr. Kilmartin does not evidently stop to think that his only does not evidently stop to think that his only title to membership on even the Manogue com-of land there, and, according to custom, planted a cross in the center of it.

The residents of the south side of the river protested against the chapel being put anywhere except on the south side. The residents on the north side would hear of no change.

A petition was sent to Bishop Laffeche of Three Rivers by the people of the south side asking him to alter his decision and let the chapel be erected on the south side. The south side people were wild with delight when the bishop replied that he really thought the south side would be the best spot after all.

There were 226 arrests made by the police during the twenty-four hours ending at noon today, and this morning there were 105 prisoners in the dock of the Police Court. In addition to this number there were seventy-five out on deckets in the two courts. This is next the largest number of cases ever before the court in a single day. Since then Mr. Wells of the eighteenth district had been acknowledged by the Manogue faction, as was proper that he should have been, as he was the unanimous selection of the three delegates from that district, and Mr. Hutchins, whose reputation for honesty of purpose is only equaled by his rock-ribbed democracy, had acknowledged that Mr. McKehna was properly chosen the member of the central committee from the fourth district.
